

My Fellow Woodcarvers,

I hope you are sitting down as you read below. There are events being scheduled !!!

Details are still lacking; and unfortunately the Mystic Retreat ran into a variety of scheduling difficulties and will not run this year – But that will make their event all the more special when it runs in 2022. Don't lose the date – you could be very busy by then.

Be well . . . Mike Schulde

Calendar:

Message from the Pres

Happy and healthy Easter to all. Forest and Parks Ass'n has still not said when they might open their facility to outside (and eventually to inside meetings), but there are other good signs of a return to normal.

Sponsors of the old Cromwell show are getting closer to announcing details for a competition and show in Westbrook on May 5th. There will be both realistic and slick entries, but beyond that we will have to wait for details.

So save the date and keep the faith . . .

Leo
